MURIEL BRUNET

330 Cordova St. #386 | Pasadena, CA

mbrunet@smith.edu | 617-777-0087

EDUCATION

Smith College – Northampton, MA
    Candidate for Bachelor of Arts in Computer Science   May 2017
    Honors: Dean's List (2014 - 2015)   GPA: 3.80
Waseda University – Tokyo, Japan   Sept. 2015 – July 2016
    Great Lakes Colleges Association Japan Study Program
Sorbonne Cours de Civilisation Française – Paris, France   Oct. – Jan. 2013

COMPUTER KNOWLEDGE

Technical Skills: Java, Javascript, HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, Python

Relevant Courses: Computer Graphics; Visual Storytelling: Graphics, Data, and Design; Parallel and Distributed Computing; Microprocessors and Assembly Language; Web Programming; Data Science; Operating Systems

Hackathons & Conferences: MIT Hacking Arts (Nov. 2016), Google NYC – Hack4Humanity (Nov.2014), Hack@Brown (Jan. 2014)

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Web Developer in the Human Computation and Visualization Laboratory   Fall 2016
Smith College – Northampton, MA
- designed an exhibit on boater hats in collaboration with the Historic Costume Collection
- developed several webpages for 4 foot display screens within the larger exhibit

Internship, Development and Design Divisions   Summer 2015
Extentia Information Technology – Pune, India
- developed detailed presentations on new features of Android M and Material Design
- learned to use Adobe Photoshop to create storyboards for client product pitches
- researched third-party software and assisted engineers with integration into apps in development

Teaching Assistant for Introduction to Computer Science   Spring 2014, 2015
Smith College – Northampton, MA

OTHER WORK AND VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Master Tutor for Japanese I at Smith College – Northampton, MA   Spring 2017
Cultural Internship in the kimono industry – Tōkamachi, Japan   Feb. 2016
- studied traditional dyeing and weaving techniques with local artisans
- translated Tōkamachi Snow Festival app from Japanese to English

Waitress at Café le Pommier – Tokyo, Japan   May – July 2016
Server at Pinkberry – Cambridge, MA   May – Aug. 2014
Waitress at Brasilia Café – Paris, France   April – May 2013

BACKGROUND AND INTERESTS

Design Projects: Morris House Apparel (Nov. 2016), Computer Science Department Apparel (Nov. 2016), Hack@Smith Logo (Feb. 2015)

Languages: bilingual French/English, business Japanese, elementary Spanish

Interested in the intersection between technology and design as well as language and culture